

Our English Curriculum Vision

“There is something delicious about writing the first words of a story. You never quite know where they'll take you.” Beatrix Potter

At Leconfield Primary School we believe a quality English curriculum should develop children’s love of reading, writing and discussion.

At Leconfield Primary School We ROCK!

- Respectful – we are respectful of thoughts and feelings we find in books and when we write, speak and listen
- Open Minded – we are open minded in English lessons engage with a wide variety of subjects, genres and cultures
- Curious – we are curious and explore the written word, choosing our words carefully
- Kind – we are kind to ourselves and take time to enjoy reading and writing for pleasure

In conclusion...We ROCK!
