

LECONFIELD PRIMARY SCHOOL MUSIC CURRICULUM STATEMENT

Intent	Research	Implementation	Impact
To build a musical curriculum which develops learning and results in the acquisition of knowledge and improved well-being.	The Education Endowment Fund indicates that the impact of arts participation is positive and improved outcomes have been identified in the core subjects- English, mathematics and science. Research suggests that arts participation has a greater effect on average for younger learners and, in some cases for disadvantaged pupils and benefits have been found in both primary and secondary schools. Wider benefits include more positive attitudes to learning and increased well-being.	Clear and comprehensive scheme of work in line with the optional Model Music Curriculum through the updated Charanga Model Music curriculum (2021). Teaching and learning should show progression across all key stages within the strands of music. Peripatetic teachers come into school and teach individual instruments to those children who wish to learn them. A love of playing an instrument promoted and encouraged in their ability to do so as a form of expression.	Children will achieve age related expectations in music at the end of their cohort year. Children will retain knowledge that is pertinent to music. Children will have the opportunity to foster their instrumental flare and use this as a form of expression.
To promote a love of music and singing across a broadened curriculum.	The Education Endowment Fund indicates that the impact of arts participation is positive and improved outcomes have been identified in the core subjects- English, mathematics and science.
