Remembrance at Leconfield

On Monday Oak Class was honoured to attend the cross laying ceremony at St Catherine's Church in Leconfield. Members from the RAF, Army and Navy were there too. We listened to accounts of Leconfield's contribution to WWII and then our children and the armed forces personnel laid crosses.

On Tuesday we welcomed members of the armed forces from DST Leconfield into our classes. Our children asked some very insightful questions and they talked to us about what Remembrance means to them and shared insights into their jobs.

You may remember we asked children to colour poppies for a display at DST Leconfield. These poppies have been put up on the fence and gates outside DST Leconfield and are truly beautiful. Thank you to everyone who contributed.

Today we held a special Remembrance assembly. Veterans from the Royal British Legion and the Standard bearer were kind enough to attend and take part in question and answer sessions and our assembly. The lowering of the Standard at the sound of the Last Post was extremely moving.

Dear Parents & Carers,

Hopefully you received information about how to give consent for your child to have the flu immunisation. Please remember to use the online e-consent form to give your consent.

Have a lovely weekend, Katie Tracey,
Headteacher
