

History Curriculum Vision

“The reason for teaching history is not that it changes society, but that it changes pupils, it changes what they see in the world, and how they see it.” Peter Lee (author).

In our history lessons, we ROCK!

- Respectful-we are respectful of many civilizations, cultures societies that have influenced the world in which we live.
- Open Minded-we are open minded towards the past and appreciate there are different views about historical events.
- Curious-we are curious to discover and understand more about what has gone before us.
- Kind-we praise and highlight historical acts of kindness and humanity as examples of good citizenship.

In conclusion, we ROCK!
