

Our French Curriculum Vision

“Learning another language is not only learning different words for the same things, but learning another way to think about things” ~ Flora Lewis (Journalist)

Respectful - for other cultures, people and traditions

Open Minded - to the variety of language spoken around the world

Curious - about expressing ourselves in a different way

Kind - towards our world community

In conclusion, we ROCK!