

Leconfield Religion and World View Long Term Plan Cycle 1

Ash

What is Pilgrimage?

People who inspire us: What makes a saint?

Communities: Who inspires us?

Justice and Freedom: Is it fair?

Oak

Hopes and Visions: What is life about?

Living a Faith: What is identity?

Our World: Who cares?

People who inspire us: What makes a saint?

Cherry

Religions at Leconfield

At Leconfield, on the basis of our local context - we study:

Key Stage 1 Christianity, Hinduism and Humanism

Key Stage 2 Christianity, Hinduism, Judaism and Humanism

We will also study other religions and non religious worldviews when this is appropriate or relevant.

In EYFS Religion and World Views is taught through Understanding the World.

We look at a number of religions, explore celebrations and festivals and also follow the interests of the children.

EYFS

Communities: Who inspires us?

Believing: What is true?

Willow

Lead us not into temptation: What is right or wrong?

Questions, Questions: What are the big questions?

Leconfield Religion and World View Long Term Plan
Cycle 2

Ash

Our World: Who cares?

Faith in Action: What are the challenges?

Expressions: How is belief expressed?

Oak

Justice and Freedom: Is it fair?

Hopes and Visions: What is life about?

Living a Faith: What is identity?

Sacred places: What is Sacred?

Founders of Faith: Who? What and When?

Cherry

Remembering: Why remember?

Worship: Why Worship?

Willow

What a wonderful world: Why is the world wonderful?'

Belonging: Who Belongs?

EYFS

Religions at Leconfield
At Leconfield, on the basis of our local context - we study:
Key Stage 1 Christianity, Hinduism and Humanism
Key Stage 2 Christianity, Hinduism, Judaism and Humanism
We will also study other religions and non religious worldviews when this is appropriate or relevant.

In EYFS Religion and World Views is taught through Understanding the World.
We look at a number of religions, explore celebrations and festivals and also follow the interests of the children.