

NEWSLETTER Week 25 22nd March 2024

Goodbye Mr Elder...

It was an emotional week as we prepared to say good bye to a very special person. Many of you will have happy memories of Mr Elder...the summer fairs, residentials, choir, sports...he has been a huge part of it all. As a class teacher he helped so many and as assistant head he supported with care and kindness.

Mr Elder left school in style on Friday – thank you to Mr Bryans for arranging the treat.

We are so proud of what Mr Elder has achieved and know he will be an amazing headteacher. Good bye Mr E, you will be missed x

Dear Parents and Carers,

Month of the Military Child

April is the month of the military child. When we return to school after the Easter break we will be recognising this special time in our assemblies and in classes.

See below for some interesting online activities and resources.

Charity Day Total Update

Thank you to everyone who has donated to our fundraising for Comic Relief. Our total is now £134!

Easter Fun

The sun was out for some of the week and we jumped at the chance to have our Easter Egg Hunts. It was lovely to see children scattered around the grounds looking for clues.

We had an amazing array of entries for our decorate an egg competition. It was evident that so much thought, time and care had been taken. Well done to the winners – Hugo, Zachary, Darcie, Olivia G and Emilia - and well done to Mrs Murrey and Mrs Rasen for judging the competition – an unenviable job!

Have a lovely Easter! Katie Tracey, Headteacher
