Oak Class had the highest attendance of 100%!

Dear Parents & Carers,

Thank you to parents who popped in to meet the Humber Mental Health team this week. The team will be working in all classes throughout the year on the themes of wellbeing, Connect, Give, Take Notice, Keep Learning and Be Active.

We also have some workshops for parents booked on the themes of Behaviour as a form of Communication and Routines (see diary dates). These workshops will give lots of tips and advice to help parents and carers navigate these sometimes tricky areas of parenting. Tea, coffee and biscuits will also be on offer so do pop the dates in your diary and join the team for the afternoon.

Have a lovely weekend, Katie Tracey, Headteacher

On Friday morning, Year 4 enjoyed a Cross Country event with staff from Longcroft. It was a chilly morning but the run got our blood pumping and everyone in Year 4 (including Miss Watson!) joined in with great gusto! Well done to all Year 4 for their determination and good spirits.

Special congratulations to the medal winners:
