NEWSLETTER Thursday 19th December 2024

Dear Parents & Carers,

Update

Miss Allanson will start a phased return after Christmas and will build up to full time teaching commitments. Mrs Johnson, who has been working with Cherry Class on supply, is leaving to continue supply work in other schools and I am delighted to tell you that Mr Joe Patton will teach Cherry Class during the phased return for the sessions when Miss Allanson is not teaching. Mr Patton has worked in our school on several occasions and is an excellent and experienced teacher.

Once Miss Allanson has built up to her full teaching commitment she will resume her duties as SENCO. I will keep you informed about when this will happen.

What a Week!

We have had a wonderful final week, what an end to a busy term!

Thank you to all who joined us for our craft afternoon on Monday, it was lovely to see you and the children loved working with you and sharing the activities. There were some wonderful creations by the end of the afternoon.

Thank you to those who joined us at the Pantomime. It was such an exciting afternoon for our children and we had a great time seeing the children get involved with the show. We were especially thrilled to see Oliver and Evelyn up on stage helping with the entertainment but a special mention must be made to Mr Patton and Mrs Sherrif for their very funny farm animal impressions! On Wednesday we had our Christmas parties and a special visitor dropped in to deliver some early treats to the infants.

Today we have had a quieter day with time in classrooms and a whole school screening of the Snowman this afternoon complete with candles and fairy lights.

School Meals 6/1/25

An email was sent out this week to let everyone know that there will not be any school meals on Monday 6th January. This is because St Mary's school has a training day so the kitchen will not be open. Please provide your child with a packed lunch for that day. School meals will be back as usual from Tuesday 7th January 2025.

Thank you for your cards, gifts and kind words this Christmas season. We wish you all a restful and merry Christmas and a very happy New Year!

Mrs Katie Tracey, Headteacher
