Whole School: 95.34%

Ash Class had the highest attendance of 99%!

Dear Parents & Carers,

We have had an arts packed week with Ash and Oak Classes performing dances to parents and carers and all classes dipping into Creativity Week. We also had a special visit from Humberside Fire Brigade. See P2 for photos.

Well done to everyone who Rocked to the Top this half term. Keep reading over the half term break, we would love to hear about what you are reading.

Thank you for all your support and kindness this half term. It has been a busy eight weeks with lots of illness and you have all been wonderful!

A personal thank you to our staff and governors for their dedication, smiles and humour – we are very lucky to have you. What a team!

Have a fantastic half term break, Katie Tracey, Headteacher

Autumn Term Rock to the Top Reward...

Well done to everyone who has been keeping up with their reading at home this half term and managed to Rock to the Top!
Our challenge starts again after half term so keep reading!

Creativity Week...

Natural art work in Oak Class.

Ash created land art using resources outside and completed a story starter workshop with author James Nichol then planned their own story and began writing it with advice from the author himself!

Helping Hands...

Our infants had the best time ever with firefighters from Humberside Fire Brigade!

Cherry Class had an Autumn Bread Creation Station!

We have a very creative crew in Chestnut Class!
