NEWSLETTER Friday 14th March 2025

Dear Parents & Carers,

Parents' Evenings

Thank you to all the parents who attended our parents' evenings this week and supported your children. It was wonderful to see so many of you engaging with our school's activities and taking the time to participate in these important conversations about children's progress. Your continued involvement makes a significant difference in your children's educational journey.

What a Creative Week!

On Wednesday, we were very fortunate to host the talented Eleanor Tomlinson for a whole school art day. Renowned for her exquisite paintings of Queen Elizabeth II, her beloved corgis and Paddington Bear, Ms Tomlinson worked directly with every class, guiding children as they created some fabulous artwork. It was a delight to see her sharing invaluable tips and skills, fostering a deeper appreciation for the creative process.

The day was filled with creativity and inspiration, as we explored various techniques and expressed our individuality through artistic endeavours. From vibrant flowers to intricate paintings of bees, sharks and penguins, the talent that emerged was nothing short of impressive. As a culmination of our artistic efforts, we concluded the day with an art gallery assembly where each class had the opportunity to showcase their creations. The atmosphere was electric as everyone proudly displayed their masterpieces, and it was heartening to see the joy and pride on their faces.

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to those of you who attended our art gallery event. It was a joy to see children's efforts celebrated by the community. Your presence and support made the event even more special. We hope you enjoyed the experience as much as the children did, and we look forward to future opportunities to engage in the arts together.

Charity News

As you know, each year our children vote for three charities they would like to support. This year we are supporting Children in Need, SSAFA and RSPCA. This term is the turn of SSAFA and we will be raising money for this very worthy charity through our Purple Up, nonuniform day on 25th April.

Thank you for your support. Have a lovely weekend.

Katie Tracey (Mrs), Headteacher.
